- d. The Purchaser consents to be contacted by the Assignee/Bank for financial services to complete the purchase herein.

9. Default

If the Purchaser defaults in complying with any of the conditions herein or in payment of any sums payable, then the Assignee/Bank may (without prejudice to their rights for specific performance) treat such default as a repudiation of the contract and terminate the sale without notice in which event the monies previously paid pursuant to Clause 5 and Clause 7 (as the case may be) shall be forfeited absolutely by the Assignee/Bank who shall be entitled to put up the property for re-sale again and the costs of such re-sale with the deficiency in price (if any) resulting there-from shall be recoverable as a debt due from the defaulting Purchaser.

10. Quit Rent & Other Outgoings

- a. Subject to Clause 8(c) above, any arrears of quit rent, assessments and service/maintenance charges and any other outgoings which may be lawfully due to the Developer or the relevant authorities up to the date of successful sale of the subject property shall be borne out of the purchase money provided that the Purchaser shall extract a copy of such bills and request for payment from the Assignee/Bank within 90 days from the date of the sale. Any such sums due and payable after the date of sale shall be borne by the Purchaser absolutely. The Purchaser shall bear and pay all fees and expenses including but not limited to all legal fees, stamp duty and registration fees in connection with, incidental pursuant to the property / the Assignment and all other documents necessary for effecting the transfer or assigning the beneficial ownership in the property to the Purchaser.
- b. The Purchaser is responsible to make his/her own enquiries on all liabilities affecting the property and shall be deemed to purchase in all respects subject thereto whether or not he/she makes any enquiry and neither the Assignee/Bank nor the Auctioneer shall be required or bound to inform the Purchaser of any such matters whether known to them or not and the Purchaser shall not raise any enquiry, requisition or objection thereon or thereto.
- c. The stamp duty and registration fee and all costs for the Memorandum, the assignment and subsequent transfer (as the case may be) shall be borne and paid by the Purchaser.

10A. Issuance of strata title/individual title

- a. The Purchaser shall at his/her own cost and expense apply to the relevant authorities for approval to transfer in the event that the strata title/individual title of the Property has been issued.

11. Relevant Authorities Approval

The property is sold subject to the Purchaser at own costs undertaking to apply for and obtain the approval (if any) required from the Proprietor and/or State Authorities or other relevant bodies. All sums or dues whatsoever owing to the Proprietor and/or the State Authorities or relevant bodies shall be borne and paid by the Purchaser absolutely. The Purchaser undertakes to keep the Assignee/Bank and/or its Solicitors informed of the progress of such applications. No warranty is given by the Assignee/Bank that any of the approval can be obtained, but in the event of:

- a any of the approval not being obtained from the Proprietor and/or State Authorities or other relevant bodies (other than for reasons attributable to any act of default or omission by the Purchaser) on expiry of the time period prescribed for completion: or
- b any of the approval from the Proprietor and/or State Authorities or other relevant bodies shall be subject to conditions which are not acceptable to the Assignee/Bank in its absolute discretion; or
- c the sale herein being set aside for any reason whatsoever by the Assignee/Bank or by an Order of Court;

Subject to Clause 6(b) above, the Assignee/Bank is absolutely entitled to terminate the sale by giving the Purchaser written notice thereof, in which case:

- if in the meanwhile the Purchaser has entered into possession of the property, then the Purchaser is liable at his/her own costs to reinstate the property to the original condition as at the date of the auction sale, and thereafter peaceably to yield up vacant possession of the property to the Assignee/Bank within 7 days upon service of the notice terminating the sale; and
- the costs/expenses reasonably incurred by the Assignee/Bank in connection with the sale, as well as the costs to reinstate damage (if any) to the property caused by the Purchaser in possession thereof shall be deducted and set-off against the deposit and other monies (if any, paid herein towards account of the purchase price by the Purchaser to the Assignee/Bank) and thereafter the residue (if any) shall be refunded to the Purchaser free of interest. For this purpose a certificate signed by any officer of the Assignee/Bank certifying the amount of such expenses or costs shall be deemed final/conclusive and binding upon the Purchaser.

Subject as aforesaid, the Purchaser shall have no further claim against the Assignee/Bank, its Solicitors nor the Auctioneer for damages, compensation or any cause whatsoever in relation to the sale being terminated as aforesaid.

12. Vacant Possession

The property is sold without vacant possession, thereby no warranty is given that the property can be used for occupation and in the event of circumstances existing which prevents entry or occupation by the Purchaser, such circumstances shall not annul the sale or entitle the Purchaser to rescind the contract or claim a reduction in the price or for damages. The Assignee/Bank does not undertake to deliver vacant possession of the property to the Purchaser. The Purchaser after the payment of the purchase price in full together with any accrued interest thereon, if any, shall at his/her own cost and expense take possession of the property.

13. Conditions of Property

- a. The property is believed and shall be taken to be correctly described and is sold subject to all express and implied conditions, restrictions in interest, easements, common rights, leases, tenancies, occupiers, encroachment, trespass, nuisance, charges, liens, caveats, covenants, liabilities, encumbrances, all public and private rights of way, support, drainage, light and all other rights or other incidents (if any) subsisting thereon without any obligation arising for the Assignee/Bank to define the same respectively and any error, misstatement, omission or mis-description discovered in the contract shall not annul the sale nor shall any compensation be allowed by or to either party in respect thereof. The Purchaser shall be deemed to have full knowledge of the state and condition of the property.
- b. The Purchaser shall be deemed to have inspected and investigated the conditions of the property as is where is and shall raise no requisition or objection thereon or thereto. No representation warranty or undertaking whatsoever is made or should be implied as to whether or not the property complies with any relevant building by-laws or legislation. The Purchaser shall take the property as is where is and shall not require the connection of water, electricity or other utilities thereto nor removal of any rubbish thereat. The fact (if such be the case) that the property or renovations thereat may contravene building by-laws or legislation shall not annul the sale or entitle the Purchaser to rescind the sale or claim damages or diminution in price.
- c. The Assignee/Bank makes no representation as to the ownership of furniture fittings and fixtures situated at the property which items may be on hire purchase, lease or deferred sale from third parties. In such cases the Assignee/Bank accepts no liability for any payments which may be outstanding in respect thereof and the property is sold subject thereto.
